

Enter the 2009 Girls Gone Great Scholarship Essay Contest

You have a voice, you have great ideas, you contribute, you have hopes and dreams...and, WomanTalk Live wants to hear all about it!

Tell us how you are a girl gone great and be eligible to win a $1000 scholarship and much more! Girls Gone Great is a scholarship essay contest for young women entering their junior or senior year of high school in the Fall of 2008.

How to Enter

Step 1

Your essay should address each of these questions:

- 1) How are you making a difference in your community?
- 2) Why is making a difference important to you?
- 3) How do your actions support your vision for the future?

Your essay should be 800 words or less, single-spaced in 12-point font and checked for grammar and spelling.

At the top of your essay, be sure to include your name, what high school you attend and what grade level you are, your home address, a phone number where you can be reached, and your email address.

Step 2

Submit a reference from someone who is not a family member. At the top of their reference, they should include:

- The name of the girl gone great they are supporting
- Their name, mailing address, phone number and email address
- What their relationship to you is
- How long they have known you
- And, most importantly....what makes you a Girl Gone Great?

Step 3

Submit your essay and reference in a Word Document attachment and email it to GirlsGoneGreat@yahoo.com

The deadline for submission is midnight, Friday, October 31, 2008

When your submission is received, you will receive a confirmation email within 2 days. All essay submissions become the property of WomanTalk Live and excerpts from your essay may be read on WVIE 1370 AM during the months of November and December 2008 and January 2009. In addition, excerpts from your essay may be used on the WomanTalk Live website or in printed materials.

The WomanTalk Live 2009 Girl Gone Great will be announced on January 15, 2009.
